

1st circular

SilvaNet – WoodNet Conference

Academic students conference is organised under the patronage of the dean of the Faculty of Forestry and Wood Technology Mendel University in Brno, Czech Republic.

The conference takes place on 29 November 2017 and poster exhibition from 27 November to 1 December 2017 at the Faculty.

Conference is intended for both Czech and foreign students of postgraduate and undergraduate courses in the field of forestry and related sciences. The working language is English.

Aims of the Conference:

- presentation of theses and dissertations of postgraduate and undergraduate students from Czech Republic, Slovakia, EU and other countries
- meeting of postgraduate and undergraduate students, linking up contacts, engagement in both running and upcoming projects
- presentation of IGA projects results

The Conference is sectioned in following scientific fields:

- Forest Ecology
- Forest Fytology
- Silviculture
- Forest Protection
- Wildlife Management
- Furniture Technology
- Applied Geoinformatics and Geodesy
- Renewable Resources Economics and Management
- Technology and Mechanization in Forestry
- Wood Processing and Timber Technology
- Wood and Materials Characteristics
- Forest Management
- Landscaping and Landscape Conservation

Important dates:

- 31 October 2017 – Deadline for submitting presentation summary and poster summary by e-mail to e-mail address iga.ldf@mendelu.cz, maximum two pages following the attached instructions
- 14 November 2017 – Second Circular. Conference final programme with comprehensive time table for the whole conference
- 27 November 2017 – Launching poster exhibition
- 23 December 2017 – Conference date
-

Instructions for summary submitting:

The summary file name form: Surname_FirstName.doc

Further instruction is attached and to be found on the Faculty website

prof. Dr. Ing. Libor Jankovský
Chairman of the Council of the IGA LDF MENDELU