

EUROPEAN FORESTRY

How to apply?

1) All applicants follow the instructions of recognition of previous studies:

http://ects.mendelu.cz/en/information_institution/general_arrangements?lang=en

2)

3) All applicants from abroad receive a link and detailed instructions for online entrance test at the beginning of April. Entrance test is held third week in April.

4) All applicants receive the result in the middle of May by e-mail. Successful applicants receive the Study contract by email. They will sign it and send the scholar fee to the bank account stated in the Study contract.

5) After confirmation of payment and recognition of previous studies, successful applicants will receive documents for visa process (Confirmation of accommodation, Acceptance letter including information about enrolment).

6) Enrolment is held in the third week of September.

7) The price of master programme European Forestry is 40 000 CZK per whole studies.